

Archives Article View

Published on TBNWeekly.com - March 5, 2013

Kiwanis flip pancakes for Pow Wow

Article published on Tuesday, March 5, 2013

SEMINOLE – The Kiwanis Breakfast Club of Seminole plans its 32nd annual Pancake Day on Saturday, March 9, 7 to 11 a.m., during the city's 45th annual Pow Wow Festival at the Seminole Recreation Center, 9100 113th St. N.

The breakfast fundraiser will offer all the pancakes you can eat in two different flavors. There will be a choice of toppings served with sausage and beverage (fresh orange juice, coffee, or milk). Harp music will be performed on stage.

The club also will be giving away free books for all ages.

Parking for the event is free and available at the adjacent St. Petersburg College and Seminole library. A golf cart shuttle service from the parking lot to the main entrance will be provided.

Tickets for the breakfast are $5 for adults and $3 for children 5 to 10 years old. There is no charge for children 4 and under.

Tickets can be purchased at First Home Bank in Seminole by contacting Charlene Jasmin at 399-5602, or at the door.

All proceeds will go toward support of the Kiwanis Breakfast Club's "Just One Book" and "Reading is Fun-damental" programs, as well as other community service projects.

Gold Level corporate sponsors include First Home Bank, Fairway Golf Carts, Lewis W. Mohn Funeral Home, Mama's Kitchen, McDonald's, Wright's Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center, Harvest Meat Co., and Trust Business Systems.

Article published on Tuesday, March 5, 2013

Copyright © Tampa Bay Newspapers: All rights reserved.

Photo courtesy of JANE MUHLIN

From left, Kiwanis Breakfast Club members Lee Trador, Lee Walters and Bob Root flip pancakes during the club's annual Pancake Day last year at the Pow Wow Festival. This year's event is set Saturday, March 9, 7 to 11 a.m., at the Seminole Recreation Center. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for children at the door.

© Tampa Bay Newspapers: All rights reserved.