Kiwanis offering nursing scholarship

Article published on Thursday, April 18, 2013

SEMINOLE – The Kiwanis Club of Seminole Breakfast Foundation is accepting applications for the Colonel Mildred Imogene Butler Nursing Scholarship.

This opportunity is for Pinellas County high school seniors and St. Petersburg College students interested in a nursing career and who will attend St. Petersburg College.

Scholarship recipients will be expected to participate in the following:

- Attend a Kiwanis program of the Kiwanis Club of Seminole Breakfast, where you will receive your award.
- Make yourself available for and encourage media interviews.
- Maintain full-time academic studies with distinction, giving equal importance to the academic and service aspects of the scholarship.
- Present at least two talks to Kiwanis audiences during the year.
- Register contact information, keeping your address, telephone number and email address updated at all times.

Applications are due on Wednesday, May 15 and may be mailed to or dropped off at the Kiwanis Club of Seminole Breakfast, c/o Lee Walters, 3562 90th Terrace, Pinellas Park, FL 33782. To download an application, visit www.kiwanisseminolebreakfast.com/foundation.
