Seminole Kiwanis Club seeks Field of Honor Flag Sponsors

SEMINOLE — The Kiwanis Breakfast Club of Seminole is accepting flag sponsorship applications for its 2020 Field of Honor, in partnership with the city of Seminole. The Field of Honor, which began with 24 flags in 2015, is now in its sixth year boasts 425 American flags.

The flags will be displayed the entire month of November in front of Seminole City Hall and adjacent post office.

Individuals, businesses and organizations can sponsor a single or multiple 3-by-5-foot American flags for $35 each. Flags are mounted on an 8-foot steel staff and placed in precision rows. Each sponsored flag will have a colored military-style streamer attached printed with the name of the veteran being honored, years served, military service logo and the Kiwanis logo. The color of this year's streamers will be gold in recognition of the city of Seminole's 50th anniversary.

Flags may be sponsored via credit/debit card or by check by visiting the Kiwanis Club's web site at www.kiwaniseminolebreakfast.com. For sponsorships via cash payment, please contact Kiwanis Club members Leah Hoffman at 727-873-8752 or Wayne McKenney at 813-767-4682. Sponsorship applications are available at Seminole's City Hall, Recreation Center and library.

Proceeds from the Field of Honor will primarily be used to support the Kiwanis Breakfast Club's numerous community service programs through its 501(c)(3) nonprofit community service foundation. Some of these programs include Adopt-A-School and Bring Up Grades at six elementary schools, Family Fun Fishing Days, K-Kids Clubs, Reading is Fun-damental and Special Olympics.
